Lost in Asia is a place for everyone, especially those that want to have fun. Our menu is designed for a sharing experience, and even if you'd prefer to not share, we strongly encourage giving it a go - it means you get to taste a bit of everything! Our dishes are sent as they are ready, so the food just keeps on coming. If you're not super hungry, there's plenty of bar snacks designed to compliment our range of beers from throughout Asia.

Even if you have already online, please inform us of any dietary requirements or allergies so that we can do our best to cater for you. We try to cater for everybody, however, true to Southeast Asian style, we use a lot of seafood, nuts and chillies in our kitchen. So, no matter how small the concern, please let your server know, so that everybody leaves the venue in one piece. On the bright side, a large portion of our dishes are gluten free, so if you want a delicious coeliac feast, you've come to the right place.
