THE STORY BEHIND SÜREYYA

Süreyya is the coming together of two lifelong passions - wellness and hospitality.

Founded by husband and wife team, Kristy Morris and Dr Özgür (Oz) Dedehayır, Süreyya represents a shared vision of creating spaces that enrich people's lives through connection, nourishment and care.

Kristy is the founder of the multi-award-winning KAILO Wellness Medispa, widely recognised as a pioneer in redefining the wellness industry. Long before wellness became a global movement, KAILO brought together luxury, preventative health, longevity, medical expertise and holistic wellbeing under one roof, creating a world-class destination dedicated to helping people look after themselves from the inside out.

This philosophy was later expanded through KAILO Nutrition, an internationally recognised wellness brand dedicated to supporting health and longevity through evidence-based nutrition. Awarded the title of the World's Leading Luxury Wellness Brand, KAILO Nutrition products are now enjoyed by customers and stocked by partners across Australia, the USA, the UAE and Europe, reflecting the brand's commitment to helping people pursue better health wherever they are in the world.

Alongside Kristy, Oz has built an international academic career studying food innovation, entrepreneurship and the creation of food ecosystems that enable people, businesses and communities to thrive. As Director of Export and Innovation at KAILO Nutrition, he also shares a deep commitment to advancing wellness and helping Australian innovation reach global markets.

The inspiration behind Süreyya is deeply personal.

Named after Oz's beloved late grandmother, Süreyya honours the woman who helped shape some of his fondest childhood memories. Growing up in İstanbul, Oz spent countless hours watching his grandmother prepare delicious meals, learning that food was never simply about nourishment, it was about family, generosity, storytelling and bringing people together around the table. Today, those memories live on through Süreyya.

More than a café, Süreyya is a celebration of Turkish hospitality and the belief that food has the power to connect people and create community. It is a place where guests are welcomed like family, where traditions are shared, and where every meal is an invitation to slow down and enjoy life's simple pleasures.

Together, KAILO and Süreyya reflect the values that Kristy and Oz hold closest: wellbeing, longevity, connection, innovation and genuine care for others.

We hope you feel at home at Süreyya Kahve.
