Summer 2026

One Vision – Two Hemispheres Winemakers Dinner

Join us for a rare and intimate wine dinner celebrating Domaine Thomson, an extraordinary family estate spanning Central Otago, New Zealand and Burgundy, France.

Hosted by owner PM (Pui Mun) Chan, this exclusive event explores how one guiding philosophy finds expression across two hemispheres. Over five delicious and perfectly matched courses prepared by our Executive Chef, Jordon Garcia, PM will share her wines and the deeply personal story of her viticultural journey.

Domaine Thomson was created by PM and her husband David Hall-Jones. This remarkable estate now produces stunning wines from vineyards planted across two hemispheres. Both the Otago and Burgundy wineries are driven by a single philosophy: that great wine is born from patience, place and long-term stewardship. Their first vineyards were planted in Lowburn, Central Otago, overlooking the magnificent Lake Dunstan. From the outset, the ambition was never scale, but precision based on Burgundian principles of site expression, restraint and longevity. While Central Otago provided the physical foundation of their vision, Burgundy was always the spiritual anchor for PM and David. Incredibly, the estate soon grew to encompass the establishment of vines in the iconic Burgundian appellation of Gevrey-Chambertin before plantings in Saint-Aubin of the Côte de Beaune, Mercurey and Mellecey of the Côte Chalonnaise.

Do not miss PM's amazing story as you enjoy the premium wines of Domaine Thomson from both Otago and Burgundy, perfectly match with gourmet cuisine from Chef Jordon Garcia.

Date: Wednesday 25th & Thursday 26th February 2026 | 7:00pm

Price: $250 per person

PREMIUM WINES

BY THE 150 ml GLASS & HALF BOTTLE

2020 Chateau de Marsannay Blanc, Côte de Beaune, France

$36 glass or $79.50 half bottle

The winemaker is Sylvain Pabion who has a focus on sustainable organic viticultural practices. Grapes are hand-harvested and gently pressed before fermentation in stainless steel and oak barrels. The nose is expressive yet elegant, with citrus blossoms, fresh pear, apple and subtle white peach, layered with gentle notes of acacia and almond. A fine mineral backbone and saline lift provide tension, while a discreet oak influence adds a slight oaky creaminess. The finish is long, dry, and finely etched, leaving impressions of citrus and chalky minerality.

2020 Pascal Bouchard Organic Chablis, Burgundy, France

$30 glass or $67.00 half bottle

Pascal Bouchard hold some of Chablis finest terroirs. They practice sustainable farming with some bottlings having organic certification. The ethos is to showcase the unique terroir of the Chablis region and its ancient Kimmeridgian soils. Aromas open with crushed limestone, lemon zest, white peach, and wet flint, layered with hints of sea breeze and chalky minerality. On the palate, it is taut and linear, delivering flavours of grapefruit, green apple, and lemon curd balanced by fine acid structure and a saline finish.

2020 'Petit Corbin' AOC Saint-Emilion Grand Cru, Right Bank Bordeaux

$38 glass or $84.50 half bottle

This is refined Saint-Émilion Grand Cru crafted by Jean-Baptiste Bourotte. From old vines near Pomerol, this elegant Merlot blend offloers silky tannins, ripe plum, floral notes, and subtle oak spice. A second wine of prestige, it reflects exceptional terroir and finesse—making it a rare and rewarding Bordeaux by the glass. 85% Merlot 15% Cabernet Franc Don't miss it!

2020 Chateau de Marsannay Les Favieres Premier Cru, Marsannay AOC

$42 glass or $94.00 half bottle

Deep ruby-red, the wine has intense aromas of ripe red and black cherries, bramble, forest undergrowth, spice and a hint of warm oak. The palate is full-bodied, offering dense layers of fruit framed by firm, yet refined tannins. Layered spice and subtle earthiness weave through, with a long, persistent finish. Grapes are hand-harvested and fermentation uses a mix of whole-bunch and destemmed fruit, with maceration lasting 12–13 days to extract balanced phenolics. Aging occurs for 13 months in 40% new oak barrels followed by three months in tank prior to bottling. Simply divine!

2018 Yarra Yering Agincourt Cabernet Malbec, Yara Valley, VIC

$40 glass or $89.50 half bottle

Perfume is the signature of this wine with lifted bramble, redcurrant and mixed berry fruits. Bright fruit flavours include cranberry, mulberries and blueberries. Fresh cut box hedge bringing a leafy lift and many tannins and clove spices. It has vibrant acidity and an elegant fruit drive. Fine-grained tannins and a persistent finish make this a very classy blend. Yarra Yering is the Real Review 2024 Winery of the Year and the winemaker is Sarah Cooke. 75% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Malbec.
