FOOD & WINE

ATTENZIONE!

We have prepared an evolving list of producers who have inspired our palates throughout our ongoing exploration into the passion of 'the wine'.

It makes us proud to know we are able to showcase what almost feels like a selfless industry that is merely tied together with love.

We seek to only represent those who care for the land and the providence of their craft, looking to leave the land better than when they found it.

Hopefully this list is one that warrants exploration and discovery. We are excited for you to join our journey and passion for what is in the glass as well as the people behind it!

A note from Felix and Toby

Attensione! Food & Wine is located on land belonging to the Gadigal people of the Eora nation. We acknowledge the Traditional Custodians and pay respect to Elders past and present of the lands on which we work and live, and further acknowledge and pay respect to the Traditional Owners of the land.

BY THE GLASS

SPARKLING 120ML

Val Piana - NV Prosecco - GLERA - Veneto, Italy 17

Crisp & refreshing. A Prosecco for all occasions. Lovely Jubbly Bubbly.

Nöel Bazin - NV 'L'unanime' - CHARDONNAY - Montagne de Reims, Champagne 32 (100ml)

An outstanding glass of Champagne here to accompany every moment. Quince, Nashi pear and a salty resolve. What's not to like?

NOT RED (WHITE) 120ML

Max Ferdinand Richter - 2021 'Estate' - RIESLING - Mosel, Germany (Slightly Off Dry) 21

We have here a beautifully balanced classic representation of what it means to be a 'slightly off dry' Mosel Riesling. We got fruit sweetness, we got bounce, we got a mineral edge and we got a whole world of goodness packed in a bottle. Now have some fun and take a sip.

La Prova - 2023 - FIANO - Gods Country, S.A. 18

Sam Scott shows off his mastery of Italian varietals and provides an excellent example of why they're well suited to Australian climates. A crisp, modern expression with plenty of pear and apple crunch, underscored by the barrel-fermented richness and texture from the 'fluffy' lees; finishing dry and chalky, with a whisper of salinity.

Montevento - 2023 - PINOT GRIGIO - Veneto, Italy 16

From the heartland of great Pinot Grigio and it doesn't disappoint. Bright, crisp & refreshing.

Terre Stregate - 2023 'Trama' - FALANGHINA - Campania, ITALY 19

Perhaps a little less know, Falanghina is straight from the sun-drenched hills of Campania in southern Italy. Bursting with crisp stone fruits, white florals, and green apple, framed by lively acidity and a clean, mineral finish, its a perfect partner for seafood and lighter dishes. Cin cin!

Elderslie Wines - 2021 'Hills Blend #1' - PINOT BLANC - God's Country, S.A. 21

Adam Wadewitz (of Shaw & Smith and Tolpuddle fame) brings a crisp and finely textured white from the cool slopes of the Adelaide Hills. This wine delivers vibrant citrus and stone fruits enhanced complex texture from the use of oak aging and lees-stirring. Perfect for Chardonnay drinkers.

Marco De Bartoli - 2023 'Lucido' - CATARRATO - Sicily, Italy 24

The man from Marsala! Marco De Bartoli creates the truest forms of traditional varieties to the land in earnest. This time, Lucido - a clone of Catarrato known for its delicacy and flavour. That being said, this wine is big, bold and bountiful in personality. Saline & seaspray for days.

THINKS IT'S A RED, BUT IT'S A WHITE .. WELL.. KIND OF (ORANGE) 120ML

Valdibella 2023 'Sulle Buccie' - GRILLO - Sicily, Italy 20

"A cult classic, not best seller. As the weak become heroes, the heroes turn the page on the day and sip 'Sulle Buccie' Grillo with respects to their 45th generation Roman heritage" - Mike Skinner

KIND OF RED, BUT NOT REALLY (ROSE) 120ML

Sibiliana Roceno 2023 'Rosato' - NERELLO MASCALESE - Sicily, Italy 17

A taste of that Sicilian summer holiday you've never been on... or perhaps you have. Good for you. Lucky duck. Lively, inviting, ultimately rather pleasing.

DO WE HAVE A CHILLED RED...? MMYESSSS WE DO. 120ML

Camille Cayran 2021 'Le Pas de la Beaume' - GRENACHE, SYRAH, CINSULT - Southern Rhône, France 18

This is no 'one dimensional light red looking thing' that's all jammy, tedious and boring. This is the most perfect chill-able red that's crossed our path in some time. Get right on down to the Rhône!

RED 120ML

DelSignore 2021 'La Crotta Spanna' - NEBBIOLO - Piemonte, Italy 26

From the alpine foothills of the Northern Piedmont region of Coste della Sesia, this wine punches way above it's weight as this epic vintage lends itself to "nothing but net" to quote a common basketball parlance.

Structured yet approachable, focus & tension with ample generosity, pensive moments with a joyous resolve.

Truly cracking stuff! Sign me up buttercup.

Mortellito 2023 'Cala Niuru' - FRAPPATO, NERO D'AVOLA - Sicily, Italy 21

Oh yes, get in! A silky Frappato with elegance and finesse. A slight but intriguing tannin structure cradles a basket of diverse fruits and feelings. Cherry, blackberry, bergamot and a lick of smoke.

Those who love Pinot take note!

Franz Haas 2022 'Sofi Rosso' - LAGREIN, MERLOT - Trentino, Italy 18

A refreshingly lively Lagrein, certainly not over-extracted and dull. We find sherbert-y tannins, a gamut of blue fruits along with a palate that says hello, how are you? Sip me now!

Vinea Marson 2017 'Jozza' - SHIRAZ - Heathcote, VIC 17

An Aussie shiraz as classic as a meat pie and some sauce. She's big, bold, and laden with all the classic hits; tobacco, ripe dark berries and dried violets. The oak and alcohol are integrated seamlessly, both playing supporting roles in the symphony of the glass. A banging red.

Querce Bettina 2019 'Rosso di Montalcino' - SANGIOVESE - Tuscany, Italy 27 (Under Coravin)

Think of this as Brunello's younger, cooler cousin - full of charm, a little wild, and definitely not shy. Bright cherry and wild berry flavours dance with hints of dusty earth and hints of herbs, like a summer stroll through the Tuscan hills. That's amore.

Le Terre Diverse - 2022 'Macchia al Prete' - CABERNET SAUVIGNON, CABERNET FRANC - Bolgheri, Italy 29

50% Cabernet Sauvignon, 50% Cabernet Franc, 100% a good time. The ultimate father-son combination.

Super Tuscan... more like super YumYum.

TIMORASSO TIME

And the time is now!

Timorasso is an amazingly versatile grape— It can be a bit of everything: vibrant like Riesling, yet structured and mineral-driven like Chablis, and in the warmer years a bold fruit forward big lad with oodles of personality and flavour.

An indigenous variety from Piemonte's Colli Tortonesi, Timorasso was nearly lost to history until the "Timorasso Papi" himself, Walter Massa, made the inspired decision in the 1980s to replant and champion this historic grape. Since then, it's made a heroic and ever-growing impact on the wine world.

Today, over 50 producers are working with Timorasso—including some top Barolo and Barbaresco estates now clamouring to get their hands on Piemonte's most elusive white variety.

Always delivering more in the glass than the price suggests, Timorasso is a wine for those who love terroir expression and seek out something with both soul and structure.

NEBBIOLO

Nebbiolo; quite simply put it is our favourite noble variety.

Equal parts elegance and power, all the while being the perfect purveyor of terroir and vintage.

Nebbiolo is, of course, not just hailing from the regal regions of Barolo or Barbaresco. Historically, the regions of Gattinara & Ghemme hold more storied pasts in the importance of this grape, offering just as much satisfaction on the sip as their fancy younger siblings.

The delicate and heady wines of Valtellina and Carema will show fresher palates with intensity and a herbal lift.

Let's not forget about Australia, which is certainly throwing its hat in the ring for fantastic representations of what this grape can deliver. Menthol, ripe fruits and a slippery structure.
