BOILER MAKERS

Nothing quenches your thirst like a whisky paired with a cold beer. We've got the men who built and maintained steam train boilers in the 1800s to thank for the birth of the Boiler maker. For maximum taste, ask our staff for pairing recommendations and the modern take of alternating sipping the whisky and the beer.

GROUP COCKTAIL CLASSES

CLASSES HELD MONTHLY

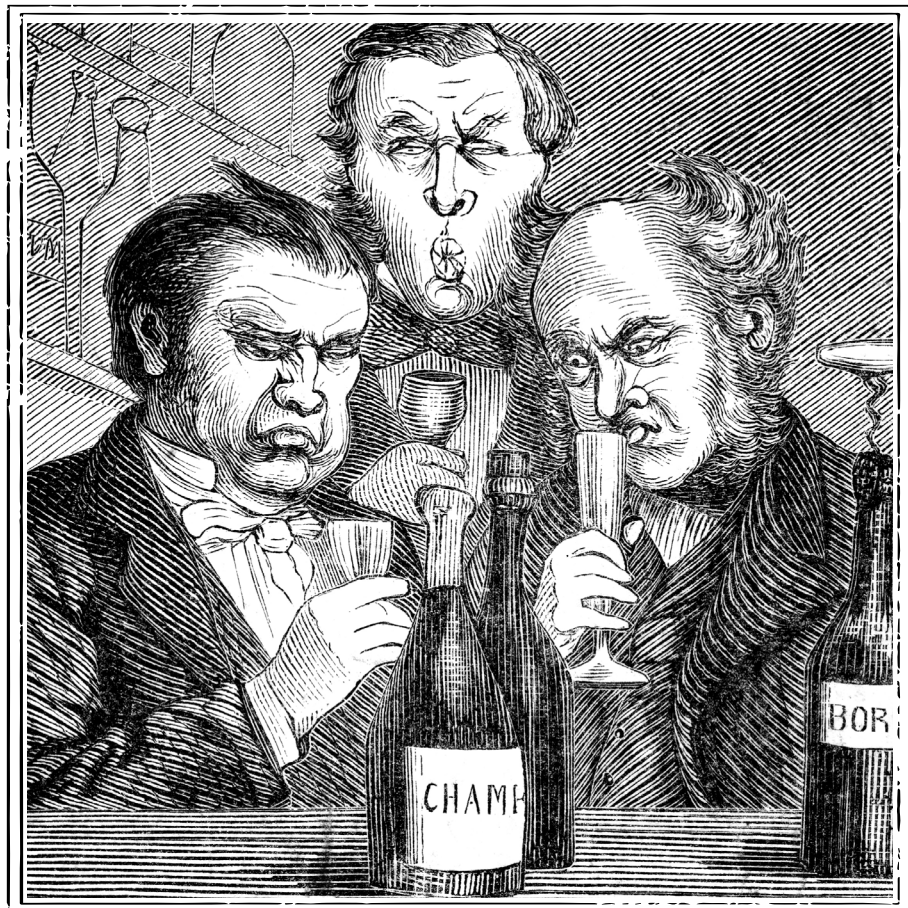

6 PM - 7.30 PM | SEE WEBSITE FOR DATES

The ultimate date night activity. Venture down to the Molly Vault with a special someone for one of our group cocktail classes. You'll have the chance to get behind the bar and learn to make your favourite cocktails.

Ticket includes a glass of Prosecco on arrival, two demonstrated cocktails and one hands-on cocktail experience for each guest.

MAXIMUM 10 GUESTS PER SESSION.
BOOKINGS ARE ESSENTIAL.

WHISKY 101

*Nothing taking your fancy?
Ask your bartender for a recommendation.*

Whisky appreciation is a process, and if you attempt to run before you can walk, you may give up entirely before you get a chance to like it. Here are our top tips for an enjoyable evening of whisky.

WHERE TO START

When starting out you want to stick with something gentle - no peat, sweet, smooth and with minimal heat. Try something Irish, a Speyside Scotch or a Japanese, these should act as a warm hug rather than a slap in the face.

SERVING OPTIONS

There's no best way to serve your whisky, it all comes down to personal choice. Experiment with the options and see what takes your fancy.

NEAT - at room temp without ice

ON THE ROCKS - with an ice cube(s)

WITH A DASH OF WATER - this can open up the subtle flavours and the touch of dilution can also reduce the heat.

WITH A MIXER - don't be afraid to start off mixing with soda, dry ginger ale or fresh apple juice.

WHISKY 101

HOW TO ENJOY

You want to nose the whisky and enjoy the aromas before you taste it. Inhale lightly through your nose and slightly through your mouth. Take your first small sip and let it sit on your tongue and swish against your cheeks before swallowing.

Repeat.

Enjoy.

NOT SURE WHERE TO START?

Our bartenders will be more than happy to make a few suggestions.

WHISK(E)Y TASTING SESSIONS

Enhance your whisky knowledge with our group tastings, led by industry experts. Private tastings are available for groups of six or more. During these private tasting sessions we'll guide you through the origins, history and flavour profiles of a unique selection of whisky. Fun and factual, our three tasting tiers ensure this is guaranteed good time for the first time taster through to the spirit aficionado. A perfect way to escape, celebrate and connect with friends or colleagues. Host an upcoming birthday, team drinks or just a night out in The Vault.

WHISKY & WHISKEY

Highland

Scotland's largest whisky region boasts a dizzying array of styles, from rich and textured to fragrant and floral, as befits an ever-changing landscape of coastline, moor and mountain. You'll find some of whisky's most famous names here – and some of its most fiercely individual spirits.

Ireland

The Irish may have been the first distillers in the British Isles and, for a brief period in the 19th century, Irish whiskey reigned supreme over its Scottish rival. Boom was followed by bust – and near extinction – but today the good times are back, with distilleries popping up all over the Emerald Isle. Expect sweet and creamy textures, spicy floral aromas and everything in between.

America

Whiskey is made all across America, with the flavours of charred new oak being a key characteristic of the style. From the sweet corn prevalent in Kentucky Bourbons to the dry and peppery spice of rye whiskies, the USA uses a wide variety of grains in its whiskey production.
