TEH

'Teh' is known as 'Tea' in Malaysia. Teh is prepared by steeping loose tea leaves in a sock filter, creating a robust and flavourful cup of black tea.

Malaysian Teh is tea mixed with Condensed Milk.

KOPI

'Kopi' means 'Coffee' in Malay. Malaysian Kopi beans are usually roasted with Margarine and sugar, resulting in a rich, strong and aromatic brew.

Kopi about is prepared similarly to the Teh, by brewing finely ground coffee in a sock filter immersed in boiling water.

Malaysian Kopi is coffee mixed with Condensed milk.

TEH TARIK

A classic and beloved Malaysian beverage.

Strong brewed tea and condensed milk is 'Tarik' (pulled) from one cup to another, creating a frothy cap that sits on top of a sweet and creamy Teh.

Dinosaur

Iced Milo topped with a heap of Milo powder.

ORDERING GUIDE AT KAYA

C

C = to the evaporated milk brand 'Carnation'. In a drink, 'C' means with sugar and evaporated milk.

O

O = with sugar but no milk.

KOSONG

Essentially means 'Empty', which translates to 'no sugar'.

BING

'Bing' means 'Ice' in Cantonese. For example, if you want an iced coffee, just say 'Kopi Bing'.
