A SHORT HISTORY OF BAD MAMA

Bad Mama (originally called Mamasan) was born when Adam was introduced to Gemma (by an old girlfriend!) at her original Bondi Restaurant Li Zai.

Years of working in Advertising drove him to drink - so designing bars became a natural career progression.

Together they designed, built & ran the legendary "original" Mamasan in Bondi.

Then they opened Bad Mama Surry Hills, and more recently Bad Mama Keelung - on the wild north coast of Taiwan, close to the rustic fishing village of Yehliu, where Gemma was born.

The busy pair have since opened Bad Mama Taipei - both Taiwanese Venues have won multiple International Awards for their Sustainable Interior Design.

Bad Mama is like an Art Gallery with a really cool bar & great food - based on the Japanese style of drinking establishment which Gemma ran for The Yakuza in Japan - whilst studying Fashion Design in Tokyo.

Gemma paints & cooks. Adam builds stuff from whatever he finds.

Bad Mama celebrates Bad Women, as well behaved women seldom make history.

Our Food is where Tokyo meets Taiwan on the set of Bladerunner - with a naughty little side order of Shanghai Brothel. Everything here at Bad Mama - what you See, Hear, Smell, Taste, Drink & Touch is designed to indulge all of your senses.

Cheers!
