DARBY

Dad, Earl Gill, was a well-known trumpet player and bandleader who, with the Hoedowners, achieved fourteen Top 20 hits in the Irish charts. Dad was a regular on the Irish jazz scene and played with Dublin's leading bands. In 1954, he formed his own band and within two years they were established as the resident dance band at the iconic Shelbourne Hotel. He also toured the US in the 50s and early 60s. That was his time and a bloody good time he had too!

“Darby lived life to the full, appreciating all the good stuff without the gimmicks”

One story of many suggests that he affectionately became known as Darby having played with his band at the Dublin premiere of the Walt Disney Film 'Darby O'Gill and The Little People' back in 1959. Funnily enough, he arrived at that premiere in a bread van having volunteered to take over a poorly neighbour's delivery route that day. Darby lived life to the full, appreciating all the good stuff without the gimmicks which is why I have decided to name our new joint after him, it's his kind of place!

-Robin Gill
