Maker's Mark - 45% (Kentucky, USA) 5.80

So good in cocktails. Smooth, sweet, bit of fruit. Uniquely made with wheat instead of rye and added to taste rather than put a date on it. The wax obviously makes it taste even better.

Heaven Hill Mellow Corn - 50% (Kentucky, USA) 6.30

Around since long before bourbon was invented, straight corn whiskey comes from the stills of settlers and prospectors. Just with a bit of time on old bourbon barrels to chill it out some and add colour.

A single barrel reserve spirit with an intense nose but quite mellow on the palette. Pepper, clove and brown sugar. Oak and toffee on the finish.

Heaven's Door 8yr Old Tennessee - 47% (Kentucky, USA) 10.50

A rich, sweet and spicy bourbon from – as you've probably guessed from the name – Bob Dylan. The Heaven's Door whiskey range is named after Dylan's song, Knockin' on Heaven's Door, but the slew of awards already picked up by each whiskey show that it's far from a gimmick.

James E. Pepper 1776 - 46% (Kentucky, USA) 7.10

James's grandfather has a claim to having opened the first Kentucky Distillery in 1776, but the James Pepper brand really hit its height in the early part of the 20th century, although it had disappeared by the latter parts. It's now back with this bourbon inspired, fruity rye whiskey.

Pikesville 6yr Old - 55% (Kentucky, USA) 8.15
